

Provider eligibility criteria

As a CPD Provider to the Royal Australian College of General Practitioners (RACGP), you must meet the following criteria:

You have read and agree to comply with both the RACGP CPD Standards and the RACGP CPD Provider handbook.

You will comply with the contractual requirements of being an RACGP CPD Provider, as outlined in the RACGP CPD Provider Agreement.

You have read the 2022 RACGP curriculum and syllabus for Australian general practice and will only deliver CPD activities that can be mapped to the curriculum.

Your organisation has an education background or has suitably qualified education staff, and you can meet the CPD Activity and Provider requirements of being an RACGP CPD Provider, as outlined in the RACGP CPD Standards.

Your organisation has at least 12 months of demonstrated experience delivering education to general practitioners (GPs) in Australia.

You do not provide CPD activities on behalf of other organisations/third parties. Partnership arrangements, as defined in the sponsorship guidelines, are acceptable.

You do not offer education exclusively on the following topics:

- cosmetic/aesthetics medicine without therapeutic benefits
- medicinal cannabis.

You acknowledge that any CPD activities on new or evolving medical areas will require review by RACGP medical educators and/or subject matter experts and you will be required to cover the cost of this review at the RACGP's current rate per hour.

Your educational activities provide information about – but do not promote – goods, services, medical devices or pharmaceutical products.

You have a website that clearly advertises the education you offer to GPs.

You understand that your organisation will be audited as part of your RACGP CPD Provider Agreement.

You understand that RACGP may refuse your application based on the information you supply.
